

Munay Ki ~ The Lineage Rites of the Incas

Welcome to the next step in our evolution as human beings

11th to 13th November 2022, Ragman's Farm, Forest of Dean

The Munay Ki are a legacy that we inherit from the Andean and Inca peoples. They have held these ancient rites in trust for us for hundreds of years. Waiting for this time when the world as they see it, turns over and begins a new cycle of light. A time when we “come to see ourselves again as who we really can be.”

When the world “turned over” the last time and we entered the time of winter and dark, when new peoples came across the seas to the land of the Inca peoples, they saw the signs that told them change was coming and to preserve their teachings, traditions and healing practices for the generations to come, they retreated to the sanctuary of the mountains and the high plateaus.

The time we have been waiting for, they say, is now. And the people we have been waiting for, they are us.

The Munay Ki comprise of 9 rites or 'carpi.' 5 of these are the energetic empowerments, traditional lineage rites of the Q'ero Shaman and the remaining 4, the first 4, are the foundation rites drawn from Andean traditions to enable us to receive, embody and work with these 5 lineage rites. Historically these rites were given over many years by people walking in connection with the land and the mountains, the living presence of nature every day.

Brought together as the 9 rites of the Munay Ki they become a balancing and healing, transforming initiation that we can all receive and benefit from, however we live or walk the earth.

These rites are:

The Healers Rite ~ Hampe Carpi
The Seers Rite ~ Kawak Carpi
Bands of Power
Harmony Rite ~ Ayni Carpi
Day Keepers Rite ~ Pampamesayok Carpi
Wisdom Keepers Rite ~ Altomesayok Carpi
Earth Keepers Rite ~ Kurak Akouyak Carpi
Star Keepers Rite ~ Mosoq Carpi
Creators Rite ~ Titanjis Carpi

During our programme together you will receive all 9 rites and learn how to pass them to other people.

For thousands of years the Seers, Shaman, holy men and women of South America have shared a prophesy that the time will come when the people of the Condor and the people of the Eagle will fly together again.

It is said that once all people were one and lived together until there came a time of separation. The people of the Eagle went on to develop science and acquire great knowledge, science and intellect that has allowed their leaders to accumulate great wealth. The people of the Condor had highly developed intuitive senses and were attuned to nature. They are people of the heart and have always been able to experience their connection to the land and the seasons and cycles of life, death and renewal.

At this time, as we, the people of the Eagle seek to return to connect with the earth, the Pachamama, the people of the Condor seek also the knowledge and science that will enable them to be successful in the material world. It is sometimes difficult to see why people who live close to nature and have all that we desire seem to want all that we wish to move away from. But this is part of the way it is. Ayni, balance and harmony works in all things. To survive the people of the Condor and the Eagle need to know each others ways.

The rites of the "Munay Ki" are rites of passage and personal empowerment that support us in this time of transition.

Inca prophecy says that the age of Pachacutti began around 2012, at the same time the Mayan calendar turned over. As all 'Time and Space' turn over everything is 'loosened' and our hold on old structures and patterns has the opportunity to dissolve so that we can easily evolve and re form ourselves, evolve into the new version of humanity that will take us successfully into the age ahead of us.

The Munay Ki support us to do this, to evolve massively but sweetly, without chaos or revolution as has been the past pattern of change. They are, in fact, the catalyst for our change.

The Munay Ki help us to create a different foundation in our lives so that we can balance our relationship with all that is around us with all that is within us. Balancing and connecting all our inner and outer polarities. Enabling a dialogue with our inner and outer masculine and feminine as one way of seeing this. Then taking us forward and downloading new energetic templates and codes that inform our luminous energy field, and so our physical body also. Transforming us into the next evolutionary stage of the human being which is being called even now as Homo Luminous. We begin to age differently, to look younger. Our relationship with death and disease changes as we no longer need to age or embody sickness for the reasons we have done so in the past.

These 9 rites are gifts to us from the lineage of the people of the Condor. They support us in real ways in our lives and our personal journeys.

During the programme as you receive all 9 rites you learn also how to pass them to other people so that by the end of our workshop together you will have everything that you need to run your own Munay Ki class and share the rites with other people too, as you wish.

The full price for the weekend, (including accommodation) is just £445 per person.

I look forward to our sharing these beautiful rites together and taking them out further into the world.
